

For Immediate Release

Media Release

Oilfield Workforce Group signed major contract.

Singapore, 28 April, 2017 – Oilfield Workforce Group (“OFW”), global oil and gas manpower solutions provider, is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, Oilfield Workforce International Pte Ltd, has entered into a contract with Aramco Asia, for Global Manpower Supply Services to support their operations in Asia.

ARAMCO, the world’s largest proven crude oil reserves and largest daily oil production, is engaged in the exploration, production, refining, distribution, shipping and marketing of hydrocarbons, production of petrochemical products; and production and export of crude oil and natural gas liquids.

This contract paved a gateway to a successful partnership with ARAMCO. With manpower solution being our core specialty, involvement with a giant oil company contributes positively to our portfolio.

Commenting on the Group’s new mandate, Mr Clarence Choo, Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Oilfield Workforce said, “We are delighted to strengthen our relationship with ARAMCO, and believe that this serves as a strong testament to our international oil and gas manpower sourcing and placement capabilities.

- Ends -

About Oilfield Workforce Group

Oilfield Workforce Group, headquartered in Singapore, is an international full-service manpower solutions company that specialises in the oil and gas industry. The Group’s operational reach extends to Australia, Brazil, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar and Singapore. The Group’s professional staffing services provide customers with full-service solutions and its expertise covers all stages of the project cycle, from exploration to maintenance, and across multiple disciplines, from project management, project engineering, design engineering, contract, cost, planning, construction commission, third party inspection to operations. For more information, please visit the website at www.oilfield-workforce.com.